Two actors, calendar, note pad/pen, golf club and other props as desired.

Bonnie: (Looking at a large calendar, pointing to the days and counting to herself)

Jody: (Walks in) "What are you doing."

Bonnie: "59, 60, 61....." (Pause) "What...counting the days 'til June 24th". "Oh well, I've lost count....."
(Pause) (Sets the Calendar down and picks up a note pad and pen and starts writing.)

Jody: "Now, what are you doing?"

Bonnie: "Writing out my packing list." (Talk slowly...thoughtfully) "Let's see; Bible. There will be great Bible Studies..... I need a pen and paper to take notes on missions." "Extra Kleenex, you know that speaker, Jan, will make us laugh until we cry."Extra shopping bags for that fantastic craft store....."

Jody: (She rolls her eyes and groans deeply.) "You are driving me crazy!"

Bonnie: "Wow. Thank you I almost forgot my driver." (Picks up golf club.) "There is a world renowned golf course that I have to see!"

Jody: "I still don't understand. You are SOtrying my patience." (Throws up her hands and walks away and turns around.)

Bonnie: "That's right. Patience is a part of the Bouquet of Blessings. (Pause) Have you read Psalm 103 verse 2 recently? "Praise the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits."

Jody: (Hands on hips, looking upset) "That's enough! Will you please get to the point and tell me what this is all about!"

Bonnie: “You just said it! We need to get to Point: Steven’s Point for the North Wisconsin District LWML convention on June 24 through the 26th at the Holiday Inn and Convention Center. (Passes the convention invitation)

Jody: (Takes time to read) “This says anyone can come. You don’t have to be a Ladies Aid member or Circle Member?”

Bonnie: “That’s right. All confirmed members of the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod are members of LWML. Let’s invite Beth and Sarah.”

Jody: “So, how many people can we fit into your van!!!!” (Both walk away talking and laughing!)
