Women of Faith and "not too few"

MISSION GRANTS DIRECTOR
DEBORAH YOUNG
GREEN BAY, WI

And Elisha said to her, "What shall I do for you? Tell me; what have you in the house?" And she said, "Your servant has nothing in the house except a jar of oil." Then he said, "Go outside, borrow vessels from all your neighbors, empty vessels and not too few. (2 Kings 4:2-3)

As I reflect on our recent district convention, I am reminded of Elisha and the widow's oil. The widow was in a dire situation and she had only a small jar of olive oil to pay her debts. Recognizing the need the woman had to save her sons from slavery, Elisha instructed the widow to gather empty vessels and "not too few."

The widow is like many who request grants, someone in need of help. Those empty vessels are like our mite boxes, but their numbers are like the Women of Faith who gathered at the Radisson to support the mission of the LWML—"not too few." Even though the widow had a small amount of oil, she poured until there were no more empty vessels. Isn't that what we do as Women of Faith? We pour out love and prayers and bits of change and marvel at what God can do. What we may deem a little, oftentimes is more than we thought.

These Women of Faith at convention selected nine mission grants to support in the next biennium. (See page 2 for the Mission Grants Poster) The delegates had a tough decision to make and I thank them for prayerfully considering each one on the ballot. Please keep those not selected in your prayers, too.

Let's continue this walk together Women of Faith. Gather together, "not too few," and trust in the Lord to help us complete the work He has given us to do.

God Has A Purpose For Us

NWD PASTORAL COUNSELOR
REV. DOUGLAS REINDERS
FREEMONT/APPLETON, WI

We've probably asked ourselves, at one time or another, "Why has God put me here on earth?" As we get older, the question may be even more on our minds. Some of us can't do some of the things we did in the past because our health isn't what it used to be. We're more limited in what we can do.

I remember this being the case with quite a few of the members of the church I was a vicar at in Florida. Quite often, I would hear complaints about the aches and pains they experienced as old age set in. Some didn't understand why the Lord had still kept them around because they couldn't do much physically. They didn't see any point in their life.

I'm convinced that as long as we are alive God has a purpose for us, no matter what our physical and mental states happen to be. It doesn't matter to God if we can no longer get on our sore knees to work in the garden. It doesn't matter to Him that we aren't able to lift our aching arms high enough to get rid of all the cobwebs hanging in the corners of the rooms in our house. He doesn't care if we can't remember what we did yesterday. He still has a purpose for us.

Paul wrote: "For we are God's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do" (Ephesians 2:10). Our purpose on earth is to continue to do the good works God has ordained for us to do. As long as we are alive, we can do good by God's grace. We don't have to be in top physical shape to pray. We don't have to do the fifty-yard dash under five seconds in order to give our mites. We don't have to score high on an IQ test to share the love of Jesus with someone else. God continues to use us for good despite our declining physical and mental conditions. He still has a purpose for us; He still values us.

God gives us reason to rejoice. He uses us as we are, in every stage of our life.

Work Day Reminiscing

CHRISTIAN LIFE
DAWN VIA
CLAYTON, WI

Some days, I daydream about being able to go back in time, when I was in elementary school. No job, no bills, no responsibilities; back when my mom and grandparents were still alive, back when I had the summer off, even the music was better back then. But the phone usually rings, an email message pops up and dings at me or someone knocks on my office door and I wake up from my reminiscing dreams and I crash once more directly into full reality. Non-stop emails, paperwork is piling up on my desk, my to-do-list gets longer, non-stop meetings at work, my stomach growls at lunch time, my thoughts drift to what I will be making for dinner and that somehow reminds me I forgot to order a bag of cat food that gets put on my already long list. Things seem so hectic at times; no wonder, I daydream about being young again.

We all know our lives cannot stay the same. We were not meant to stay the same and we must change to survive. We get older and wiser and have the opportunity to share our experiences with each other that help us grow.

The only thing that always remains the same is the Word of God. Here are three Bible verses to remind us of that truth:

For, "All men are like grass, and all their glory is like the flowers of the field; the grass withers and the flowers fall, but the word of the Lord stands forever "And this is the word that was preached to you (1 Peter 1:24-25 NIV).

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever (Hebrews 13:8 NIV).

The grass withers and the flowers fall, but the word of our God endures forever (Isaiah 40:8 NIV).

No matter how busy, and hectic or calm and relaxing your life is, we must always remember to look to God as He is never changing in our ever-changing world. Read His word and you will find His strength and peace.

Ready for the 2023 Milwaukee Convention

Spring Retreat at Camp Luther 2022

There were 73 ladies that attended the Spring Retreat at Camp Luther for our event under the theme: "The Greatest of these is Love," using 1st Corinthians 13:13 as inspiration. Of those ladies, 36 stayed overnight, 40 registered for breakfast and 72 were registered for lunch.

Guest speaker, Karol Selle, led us through the first Bible study in the book, "A Missionary? Me?" that featured Joanna Johnson, a missionary in Taiwan, and her biblical character, Balaam's donkey.

In her second session, she called us to celebrate our theme and to celebrate God in our lives. It was an hour filled with moments of sharing our times of celebration and a time of affirmation.

LWML NWD President's Message

LWML NWD PRESIDENT
JOAN BERQUIST
HAYWARD, WI

We had a wonderful convention in Green Bay on June 16-18. What was your favorite part? Mine was the gathering of like-minded, mission-minded LWML women. We shared lots of hugs, smiles and enthusiasm for our organization. Walking down the hall felt like one big family reunion!

Conventions take a lot of planning and are comprised of many components put together by a team of people from the host zones and the board of directors. Jobs were delegated and shared by willing servants. Thank you to Zones 13/14 and 19 for a great convention! Also, thank you to the outgoing officers Sharon Hanke, Jody Cook, and Rev. Doug Reinders for their contribution to the convention and their four years of service.

Contribution, components, teamwork - sound familiar? This reminds us of the same thing that we do when we gather our mites together. Little bits from here and there combined together to support our LWML NWD Mission Goal. Kind of like how little fabric bits form a crazy quilt! Little bits put together to make something useful and beautiful.

At convention, we voted to support mission grants in the amount of $115,000 for the 2022-2024 biennium. In addition to this goal, we supported missions with our offerings at convention, collecting over $10,000 in support of Lutheran Bible Translators, Wolf River

Lutheran High School, the 2022-2024 biennium Mission goal and our Mission Walk for mites.

We have entered a new biennium, with newly elected officers, Joan Berquist, President; Dawn Via, 2nd Vice President; Diane Simon, Treasurer; Rev. Brian Liermann, Jr. Pastoral Counselor and newly formed committees, and a new mission grant goal.

Installation of new officers

It would be great to see you at the LWML NWD Fall Retreat at Camp Luther on September 8-10. And the fun doesn't end there. We are sending five people from our district to the LWML Assembly of Leaders workshop in St. Louis this October. They will be developing a plan to share their new knowledge within our district. Stay tuned!

We have much to do, with great goals to guide us! Let's get to work!

YWR Convention Highlights

At the district convention Young Women Representatives (YWRs) have their own special events as well as attending and assisting with convention activities. We started off early Thursday afternoon helping Deb Trewyn, the Human Care Committee Chairman, with the counting and packing of the Gifts of the Heart donations, as well as participating in the Servant events. Later that night we attended the worship service, met for devotions, enjoyed a meal together, and decorated canvas tote bags. At the end of the evening we attended the President and Candidate Reception.

Friday morning we were up bright and early to attend the YWR breakfast and pinning ceremony at 7 a.m. The YWR pin was inspired by a simple printed quilt block pattern. The pin shows a beautiful locked set of double-links. "The double links represent LWML, women of all ages who are joyfully united in spirit and purpose. While each member is different, in Christ all are linked together, complementing one another's gifts, talents and strengths."

We carried the banner of our representative zones and processed into the convention hall with our zone presidents. Afterwards, we listened to the convention business meeting and mission speakers. Later in the day, we met and prepared the YWR devotion and presented it Saturday morning.

What a wonderful experience it was to meet and get to know these talented young Christian women of our district. There were six YWRs that attended the 2022 District Convention, they were: Holly Schmitt, Katie Shaffer, Karrissa Blanchard, Rachael Dufek, Alexandria Kirch, and Tallison Westbrook.

We hope your zones will nominate YWRs for attendance at the 2023 LWML Convention in Milwaukee. Zone presidents and executive board members watch for YWR national convention application papers at the February 2023 Board meeting.

LWML Young Woman Representatives (YWRs) are mature young women, preferably 22-35 years of age, who are members of the LCMS and have not previously attended a national convention as a Young Woman Representative are eligible to become a YWR. A YWR candidate should have a deep love and devotion for her Lord Jesus Christ and will be able to participate in all national convention activities. Please look now for YWR candidates to attend the upcoming national convention.

ALL SOCIETIES

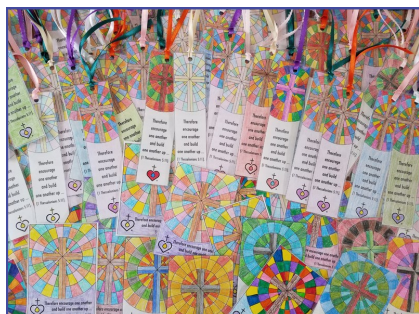

Within just two weeks, the societies in Zone 12 worked together and were able to collect, pack, ship and deliver 120 hygiene kits for Ukraine refugees through Orphan Grain Train!

We didn't list the congregations, because it was "zippity-do-da" job because of the window of time to get boxes to OGT ready to ship by air on March 16 for Ukrainian relief.

This is so much fun! St. John's Lutheran Church, Almond, LWML Ladies Aid colored and laminated 80 LWML Encouragement bookmarks and 25 postcard magnets. The bookmarks were delivered to Love Packages, Inc, Butler, Ill. The magnets were mailed to the congregation shut-ins and those needing cheer by the LWML Sunshine Committee.

Over 80 dishcloths were made by Patricia Footit, LWML member, St. John's Lutheran Church, Almond. These were taken to Orphan Grain Train Wisconsin Branch to be distributed as needed. (Patricia was a delegate at the Green Bay convention!)

Did you know that girls in many third world countries miss a week of school each month because they lack access to feminine hygiene items? Our quilting group and LWML at Christ Lutheran in Lampson has taken on the project of making washable reusable feminine hygiene kits for girls and young women that will be distributed through Orphan Grain Train. In celebration of LWML's 80th year we have reached the goal of 80 kits!
